

Olympia Muslims and Jews Celebrating the Sacred Season Together

The Jewish community invites the Muslim community to celebrate Sukkot & Shabbat together.

Gathering in the Sukkah
Friday October 17th
7:30 pm
Temple Beth Hatfiloh
8th and Washington, Olympia

The Jewish community will host our annual gathering in the TBH Sukkah during the regular oneg (blessing & sharing of food) following Shabbat services. All members of the Muslim & Jewish communities are warmly welcomed for services & the special program following services in the Sukkah.

Sukkot is a weeklong harvest celebration that marks the changing seasons, the coming of rain & the renewal of life.

Come be a part of our ongoing tradition of religious & cultural exchange, not to mention sharing fun & food.

*The evening will be youth focused
Please bring the whole family*

*This will be a community potluck event.
Please bring dessert dishes only.
(no alcohol)*

This year, Eid-ul-Fitr (celebrated at end of Ramadan) and Rosh Hashanah coincide.

For more information:
Temple Beth Hatfiloh: www.bethhatfiloh.org

